

I support the Do Not Call List because it is a great inconvenience to be disrupted by telemarketers who are often rude or speak very little English. We have a right to be protected from irritating intrusions.